HOSTILE FEETS ARE GRADUALLY APPROACHING

Great Naval Conflict Will Be Precipitated Soon.

ADMIRAL SAMPSON'S SQUADRON SAID TO BE IN SIGHT OF PORTO RICO.

Gomez Advises Landing of the Invading Army at Matanzas Where He Will Have a Large Force.

Washington, May 9.—(Special)—There is the best of authority for the statement that the day has passed without any report from Admiral Sampson. A report is not expected for several days. No apprehension is felt for his safety. It is believed that Sampson has been ordered to join the Flying Squadron and strike a blow at Porto Rico. It is now admitted that he is at present with his fleet on the North coast of San Domingo, about a day's run from Porto Rico.

The Montgomery's Whereabouts.

Port Au Prince, Hayti, May 9.—(Special)—It is reported that the Cruiser Montgomery, is off Mole St. Nicholas, picketing the windward passage between Cuba and Porto Rico.

Madrid Is Notified.

Madrid, May 9.—(Special)—The Capt. General of Porto Rico cables confidential information of the approach of a United States war fleet. He says there are three suspicious looking crafts hovering in the offing.

Havana News Via Spain.

Madrid, May 9.—(Special)—An official dispatch from Havana says an American cruiser and a large torpedo boat attempted to force the channel and open fire on the Spanish gunboat Antonio Lopez, but after a half hour's engagement the American ships were forced to retire.

One Steamer Escaped.

Madrid, May 9.—(Special)—The Governor General of Porto Rico cables that a Spanish merchantman was pursued by an American liner, but escaped with the aid of a Spanish man-of-war.

Shot At, But Missed.

Key West, May 9.—(Special)—The Vicksburg and Morrill got within range of the big Spanish guns Sunday while chasing a schooner and had a narrow escape. Only poor Spanish marksmanship saved them, the shells falling all around without hitting. It was a close call.

An Army of 50,000.

Chickamauga National Park, Ga., May 9.—(Special)—It was given officially yesterday that 40,000 men of the volunteer army would be mobilized here just as soon as they have been mustered into the Government service. With the ten regiments of regulars now here filled to war strength, the army at this point will number 50,000 men.

It was also announced that Maj. Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, Maj. Gen. Jos. Wheeler and Maj. Gen. Wilson would be in command, the purpose being to form the volunteer men into three army corps.

Wounded on the Baltimore.

New York, May 9.—(Special)—The following is a list of the wounded at Manilla, all on the Baltimore: Officers—Lieut. T. W. Kellogg, Ensign W. E. Irvin. Enlisted men—Burrow, Budinger, Covert, O'Keefe, Ricciardilli, Snelgrave, all hurt but slightly.

Four Killed for Each Maine Victim.

Washington, May 9.—(Special)—Later details from Manilla received yesterday and to-day:

The losses of the Spaniards include ten warships, several torpedo boats, two transports, navy yard and nine batteries.

Including the losses ashore, about twelve hundred Spaniards were killed or wounded.

The estimated value of the Spanish property destroyed or captured is $100,000.

On the American side the total loss is eight men wounded and $5,000 damage to the ships.

Dewey cut the cable, because he could not get the use of it from the Manila office without taking that city at once, Admiral Montejo was himself wounded. He fled to Manilla with his staff.

May Have Begun Sunday.

The New York World has received the following copyrighted cablegram from George Bronson Rea, dated Puerto Rico, via San Domingo, May 8:

"Dominican officials report heavy cannonading off the north of Montecristo, about fifty miles from here. It is believed that Sampson's squadron is engaging the Spanish Cape Verde fleet. The firing began about 9 o'clock and was terrific. The American fleet was due to arrive in Puerto Rican waters yesterday afternoon. The Spanish fleet was expected at about the same time. Sampson came here with orders to find and reduce it. He will, after destroying the Spanish ships, begin a strict blockade and, if necessary, will bombard and capture Porto

The Fleets Compared.

Both sides had 6 ships and Montejo had 9 in the Manila fight. The displacement of the two fleets shows that Admiral Dewey, with about 12,000 men, has a displacement of American warships, annihilated about 12,000 Spanish ships. The total number of guns mounted on board the United States ships was 120. On board the Spanish ships there were 94 guns. The number of men on board the former was about 1,600; on the latter about 1,300.

In neither squadron was there an armored ship, but all of the United States vessels had more or less protection from their decks, while only two of the Spanish vessels had protected decks.

Except in numbers of vessels, the United States was the superior to the Spanish squadron, yet every one of Admiral Dewey's ships was liable to be penetrated by the guns of the Spanish ships, had the gunners of the latter been able to point their pieces properly.

The largest guns mounted on board the American ships were eight inch, of which there were ten. Spain had no larger caliber afloat than six inch.

While, then, the superiority of the United States squadron to the Spanish squadron is unquestioned, yet sight must not be lost of the fact that the enemy's squadron lay under the guns of a large fortress.

Hence our newly made Admiral had to fight not only against a fleet afloat but also against powerful batteries on shore.

Sampson Ready for Business.

Cable advices received from Rear Admiral Sampson announce his arrival off the coast of Hayti Sunday with a division of his fleet. He will remain at the point where he is now located until the department or one of the scouts informs him of the appearance of the Spanish men-of-war which sailed from St. Vincent nine days ago.

Rear Admiral Sampson has with him a force which the authorities believe will easily be able to destroy the Spanish force, even should it be reinforced by the armored cruiser Carlos V., which has not been heard from for some time.

Should the Spanish fleet not make its appearance in West Indian waters by Tuesday the authorities will turn their attention to the battleship Oregon and her consorts the gunboat Marietta and cruiser Nicteroy, whose safety will then become a matter of anxiety.

Offensive movements against Puerto Rico may be expected to commence immediately after the destruction of the Spanish fleet, or upon receipt of information showing that the enemy's men-of-war are still on the other side of the Atlantic.

It is possible that the two invasions may occur simultaneously.

Down To Business at Last.

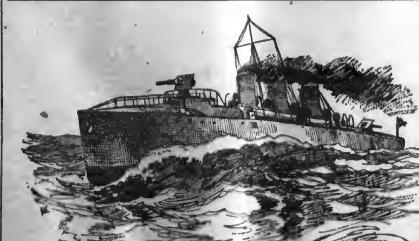

Washington, D. C., May 9.—(Special)—The President to-day sent a message to Congress reciting the facts of Commodore Dewey's victory and appointing him Rear Admiral and recommending that he and men be given a vote of thanks.

The story published this morning that 60,000 American volunteers would leave at once for Cuba is premature. Nothing will be done in this matter until the battle between the Spanish and American fleets at Porto Rico. No troops will be sent to San Juan until after the battle.

The President's policy in regard to Porto Rico is the same in regard to the Philippines. He will first destroy the Spanish fleet and then occupy the island.

The policy of the government is now clear and well defined. The war is to be pushed with such vigor and aggressiveness as to insure its early termination. The seizure of Porto Rico and the destruction of the Cape Verde fleet, if it has crossed the Atlantic, will be followed swiftly by such a movement upon Cuba as Capt. Gen. Blanco and all his forces cannot withstand.

It is almost sure that both Gage and Alger will resign from the Cabinet before the end of the week. They are upon such strained relations that one or both will have to quit to keep peace in the President's official family.

TORPEDO BOAT DESTROYER TERROR.

The Terror of the Spanish navy is a small vessel, while the Terror of the United States navy is one of the very large craft. She belongs to that class from which much is expected in case of hostilities, but of which little is yet known positively—the torpedo boat destroyer. She is of 406 tons displacement, carries the usual small rapid fire guns and torpedo tubes and is manned by a crew of 72 men in charge of Commander F. de la Roche. She is said to be one of the fastest vessels in the world.

Hung Jury in the Cato Case.

Commonwealth's Attorney W. R. Howell retured last night from court at Eddyville, having finished his labors there. The last three days of court have been taken up with the trial of the important murder case of Wm. Cato, who killed Connie Askew on a shanty boat last fall. The jury was unable to agree up to the last report yesterday evening. It is understood that they are disagreed only on the question of the extent of the punishment.

Judge Cook Didn't Come.

The expected appointment of a Master Commissioner was not made yesterday. Judge Cook didn't come.

The candidates for the place were all on the lookout, but he did not arrive either of the trains from Eddyville. He is engaged in an important murder trial, which necessitated a night session last night. He may come up to-day and end the agony early to-morrow morning.

Naval officers are not retired for the same reason that bicycles are.

MR. MITCHELL'S

Sermon Attacking the War and Co. "D" Not Approved.

Mr. Latham Sends Check For $1,000.—Hopkinsville Boys Make a Hit at Lexington.

the Courier Journal, pays the following well merited compliment to Co. "D":

"There was not a little dialogue done this afternoon by the companies which have been organized for some time, and the evolutions of the blue coats were witnessed by thousands of interested spectators. Capt. John Feland, Jr., with Company D (Hopkinsville), Third regiment, gave a very pretty dress parade drill at 3 o'clock, and some of the movements were so well executed that they elicited much applause.

Will Wicks Writes.

A letter received by Mr. John Wicks from his brother, Wm. R. Wicks, now in camp with company D at Lexington, notes the safe arrival of the company after an uneventful, and very tiresome trip. He says that they had no supper on the evening of their arrival and were all very hungry. They are now quartered in a large stable at the Fair grounds about ten men to the stall. There are three blankets to every ten men. There is plenty of straw in the stalls, however, and the soldiers are not suffering very greatly from the cold. Mud about the camp is about six inches deep and it is with the greatest difficulty and inconvenience that the soldiers can move around. He will return Wednesday to resume his duties as deputy county clerk.

WHAT THEY GET.

Lieut. Col. Henry's Salary $3,000, and Capt. Feland's $1,800.

Washington, May 9.—The War Department has announced that the volunteer officers and men will receive the same pay as men holding like positions in the regular army of the United States. The salaries of officers of the regular army are as follows:

Major General, $7,500; Brigadier General, $5,500; Colonel, $5,000; Lieutenant Colonel, $3,000; Major, $2,500; Captain of light battery (artillery), $2,000; Captain of cavalry or heavy artillery, $1,800; Captain of infantry, $1,800; First Lieutenant (mounted), $1,600; not mounted, $1,500; Second Lieutenant (mounted), $1,500; not mounted, $1,400.

Naval officers of high rank in active service are much better paid than army officers of similar rank. An Admiral receives $13,000; Vice Admiral, $9,000; Rear Admiral, $6,000; Commodore, $5,000; Captain, $4,500; Commander, $3,500; Lieutenant Commander, $2,800; Lieutenant (junior grade), $2,400; Lieutenant (senior grade), $1,800; Ensign, $1,200.

It will be noticed that the salary of an Admiral is $5,000 more than paid to a Cabinet officer, and it is the highest salary paid by the Government excepting the President.

Fifteen Spanish Prisoners.

Atlanta, Ga., May 9.—Fifteen Spanish officers and privates, captured by the United States navy, arrived from Key West under a guard of twenty-five armed men. The officers will probably be paroled, but the privates will be kept under guard at Fort McPherson. Col. Henry Cook, who has been ordered to return with the headquarters of the Fifth regiment to Fort McPherson, will have supervision of the prisoners of war.

Louisville Gets the Convention.

Norfolk, Va., May 9.—The Baptist convention referred Dr. T. T. Eaton's resolution asking that the Kentucky delegation be permitted to nominate Kentucky vacancies in the Seminary Board of Trustees to committees, to report next year. The convention also declines to make any nominations and requests the Board of Trustees not to fill the Kentucky vacancies till next year. The convention will meet in Louisville next year.

Assignee's Report.

An assignee of Thomas Brown, deceased, Judge McCarroll yesterday filed a supplemental report with the county court showing the distribution of $1,000, among the creditors of the estate.

MAD A HOT TIME.

Colored Minstrel Show Came Near Winding Up in a Razor Soiree.

Saturday night the colored troupe of this city went down to the village of Gracey to give a performance. The presence of such an aggregation of city gentries, wearing sto' clo' and silk hats and white shining shirts was not altogether to the liking of certain dusky swains of that community. And when they marched through the streets of Gracey with a band at their head playing "There'll be a Hot Time in the Old Town To-night," and when the "cullid belles" of Gracey dressed approvingly and waived red bandanas, a conspiracy was straight-way formed to carry out the prophecy which the music implied.

As a preliminary step the conspirators proceeded to take on copious draughts of Gracey stimulants, and when the performance began they assembled outside the hall and "loued" if they "couldn't get a bar they'd break up the game," accompanying this suggestion with a number of pistol shots. The audience became wildly excited, but not more so than the minstrels. The tremolo in the tenors voice could never have been acquired by cultivation.

The conspirators had the hall surrounded and were proceeding to inaugurate the "hot time in the old town," when Marshall Witty with a double-barreled rapid firing shot gun and well filled magazines came within range. He hailed the leaders and ordered a complete surrender. The reply was defiant, "All folks looks alike to us!"

Marshall Witty then brought his battery to bear and six of the enemy capitulated, the balance escaping under full headway of steam. The captured are two Irving negroes, a negro named Faulkner, Henderson, Owen and two whose names the KENTUCKIAN could not learn. In addition to the prisoners the Marshall captured four revolutionaries and three razors.

The negroes succeeded in making good in the sum of $25 each.

By a Little Girl.

The following poem was written by Miss Mary Broughan, the little daughter of Lieut. Wm. V. Broughan, an officer on the Castine, now with Sampson's fleet at Porto Rico.

We Remembered the Maine.

In the dark month of February, On the calm waters lay

A great ship, strong and graceful In the Spanish's own bay.

But a sudden explosion—

Lit up the dark night—

Twas the ship, clothed in fiery tongues

Made the great light. And for cowardly murder Which we would disdain, In the bright month of April

WE REMEMBERED THE MAINE. O, that day at Manila!

The black Spanish fleet Stood, with ballyhoo and boasting And unworded deceit.

But we paid to them then boys That debt that has lain In the breasts of all patriots, And remembered the Maine.

In the terrible slaughter! The blue sea was dyed With that horrible crimson From the ebb of life's tide. Deep with a draught of vengeance, Thought not unmixed with pain, On a sea lit with victory We remembered the Maine.

O, treachery cruel! On you did we take A sweet recompense For vengeance's sake. On the Bay of Manila With hundreds of slain, And great Spanish carnage We remembered the Maine.

And with heads crowned with glory From victory's hand Our men are assembling, A triumphal band.

In the war shouts of thousands That are marching to Spain, And the Spanish dishonor We'll remember the Maine.

M. BROUGHAN, May 7th.

There is a lot of gray-haired people dying to get married.

Idleness travails so souls that poverty soon overtakes it.

CHARLEY CAMPBELL'S CASE.

He Was Found Guilty and Given One Year in the Penitentiary.

The case of the Commonwealth against Charles Campbell, of this city, charged with malicious shooting and wounding Frank N. Crowder, a flagman on an L. & N. train near Henderson last fall, came up in the Henderson Circuit Court Saturday.

Campbell was represented by Col. E. G. Schree. The jury after hearing the evidence and arguments of counsel retired, and after a brief conference returned with a verdict finding the defendant guilty and fixing his punishment at one year's confinement in the penitentiary.

His council will enter a motion for a new trial. Campbell claims the shooting was justifiable, Crowder having struck him without provocation.

Early Movement Looked For.

Tampa, Fla., May 9.—The four companies of the Fifth Infantry broke camp to-day, two companies going to the Dry Tortugas, one to Galveston and one to Fort St. Philip. Headquarters are moved back to Fort McPherson, near Atlanta. The camping grounds of the Fifth, on Picnic Island, was taken up by the First infantry, and the duty of guarding the Comal supplies devolved upon that regiment. It was said to-day that Gen. Nunez left for Washington last night, for the purpose, it is said, of having a conference with Gen. Miles. He is not expected back before Wednesday, and no movement of either the United States of Cuban troops is looked for before that time.

PORT JEFFERSON, DRY TORTUGAS.

It is almost certain that the exact point of landing on the Cuban coast has been decided upon, and probably also the date of sailing, but army officials absolutely refuse to give out any information on the subject, merely saying that notice will be given twenty-four hours before the time set for departure.

Grayson Springs.

The indications are that Grayson Springs under the present management will be one of the most popular resorts in the South this season. The company now in charge of the famous old watering place includes a number of the most popular and successful business men in the state, among whom is Mr. M. S. Thompson, of Cadiz.

The new management announces many alterations and improvements for the approaching season. A practical hotel man of successful experience has been selected to direct the affairs. The grounds are being beautified under the care of professional gardeners. There are four large hotel structures, three stories in height, with two thousand feet of galleries, surrounded by imposing shade trees. Ample accommodations for 500 guests.

A two-third rate at the Springs will be given by the Illinois Central throughout the season.

Cadiz Too Cheap.

The KENTUCKIAN does not voice for the story, but Frank Waller tells it and proves it by Gus Tandy.

An old darky was in the store buying a pair of pants, when somebody came in with a copy of the DAILY KENTUCKIAN in hand and ex-citedly remarked:

"Well, I see the Spanish man has turned back and making for Cadiz."

The old man pricked up his ears and asked:

"What is he doing, Mr. Waller?"

"Ships, war ships, that sail on water and have guns that shoot fifteen miles," said Mr. Waller.

The old man turned as pale as a crow, and finally said with a scared look on his face:

"If dem things is coming up de riper to Cadiz, des gitting a little too close to de nigger. I live over here by Cerulean Springs, and if de come as close as Cadiz, I'm gwine over into Tedd, shore's you born."

A Popular Home.

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. John Clardy near Gracey, has been a most popular resort during the past week. Mrs. Clardy has as her guests Misses Moore, of Owensboro, Massey, of Texas, Letitia Fairleigh, Willie Rust and Toney Ware, of this city. Quite a number of Hopkinsville young men made pilgrimages to Gracey with more satisfaction than the devout monsignor makes his pilgrimage to Mecca.

Grange Sale Friday.

The annual stock sale of the Church Hill Grange, will be held next Friday and it is safe to say the usual crowd will be on hand. Stock will bring high prices, but it is not likely that the pens will be as full as usual. Of course the day will be delightfully spent by all who attend.

Wheat Still Soars.

Chicago, May 9.—There were wild scenes in the wheat market to-day and the high prices went still higher. May wheat closed at $1.75 and July at $1.20 1/4.

Don't give Dewey all of the glory, let's give Sampson and Schley a chance.

Ex-Minister Woodford, who proved to be such a failure at Madrid, has come home.

What has become of Montejo, Spain's "Fighting Admiral"? The dispatches are silent on that point.

If Sampson wants to do business, he should cut the cable to Washington as soon as he reaches the seat of war.

The Louisville bicycle races of the National circuit have been postponed till May 16 on account of the weather.

Manila wrapping paper and paper bags have gone up about ten per cent since the battle in the Philippines.

The London Spectator takes the position that the Americans ought to retain possession of the Philippines by right of conquest.

The Oriental victory seems to have caused a waking up at Washington. An army of 50,000 men is to be sent South at once.

The Spanish loss at Manila was much heavier than first reported. Manila seems to have offset the Manila victories about five to one.

There is a renewal of the talk of sending Maj. Gen. Lee as military governor to the Philippines. No man could fill the position better.

During the battle of Manila the heat was so intense that the American sailors stripped themselves to the waist while the conflict was being waged.

McMillin now has an instructed majority of the votes for Governor in the coming Democratic gubernatorial convention of Tennessee. He has won the nomination without ever leaving Washington.

It is horrible to contemplate what might have been the result of Fighting Bob Evans had been in Dewey's place. But then the fighting was not done by the mouth.

Three Kentuckians were with Dewey at Manila. They were Lieut. John Gibson, Lieut. Hugh Rodman and W. S. Montgomery. It is needless to say that all acquitted themselves with credit.

Let's hear no more talk of issuing bonds. It is better in every way to sell a few islands when we want to raise money. There are 1,200 of the Philippines and we do not need them all.

It is said at Madrid that Spain is talking of sending an invading army of 80,000 to the United States. They had better keep away if they do not want to be arrested by the police. This is no time for Spaniards to visit the United States.

Naval officers at Key West are indignant at the release of the French blockade runner, Lafayette. They believe the Lafayette's object was to provoke a quarrel, as her captain had been warned not to try to pass the line.

If Cuba is to be conquered why is not some move made in that direction? It has been three weeks since war was declared and ten days since the army was mobilized and ready for business. Hostilities would now seem to be in order.

The smartest thing Dewey did was to cut the cable. It gave him a week to whip the Spanish in his own way, without being hampered and bothered by the "board of war" at Washington, that has prevented Sampson from taking Havana since April 21st.

There were ten of the Spanish warships destroyed by the American fleet of only six. Just why Admiral Dewey ordered four of them burned after they had lowered their flags was not made clear. At this distance it looks like these valuable vessels should have been kept and appropriated to our own use.

Maj. Henry T. Stanton, poet, soldier, editor and gentleman, died at Frankfort Sunday, and the sad event will cause sorrow wherever he was known. He was the author of two volumes of poems. His "Moneysless Man" is conceded to be one of the most popular poems in the English language. Maj. Stanton was a great wit and as an editor he made the paper upon which his best efforts were put forth, the old Frankfort Yeoman, one of the leading journals of the State and one that was quoted far and wide.

One Marcus Antonius Hanna is said to have led in the cheering when Dewey's report was read, actually proposing with his own mouth that three cheers be given for the hero of the Orient and embracing Senator Tillman in a paroxysm of ecstasy. Is this the same Hanna who did not want a war at any price, and who refused to give his consent until his friend in the White House was kicked in the teeth?

Mr. Gladstone, England's Grand Old Man, is slowly nearing his end. The latest bulletin says: "Mr. Gladstone has been more comfortable during the last day or two, but the local disease is slowly increasing, and there is a gradual diminution of strength."

The first concert of Louisville's great May Musical Festival was held last night. The principal soloist was Mme. Johanna Gadski, the great German prima donna.

The Festival will last for several days and will draw large crowds to Louisville, in connection with the Commercial Convention to meet this week and the races now in progress.

Dr. Whitsitt seems to have won a victory at last in his famous controversy over church doctrines. The Southern Baptist Convention at Norfolk has refused to reopen the matter.

We have made a good start in the line of vengeance, but the trouble is we didn't get the right ones. Weyler and his followers are the "meat" we wanted.

Out of eleven of the new Major Generals, only two are baldheaded. The baldheaded men of the country will have to rise up in protest against this discrimination.

If Sampson's strength is in his hirsute adornments, it is to be hoped he will not cut off those beauteous whiskers until after the fight.

It is used to be spelled Manila, now it is Manila. They say Dewey knocked one "I" out of it.

Dr. Bell Passes.

Dr. Austin Bell, of this city, who went to Lexington for examination as surgeon of the Third Regiment Saturday, successfully passed the required examination and has received the appointment of second assistant surgeon at a salary of $1,400 a year. The chief surgeon is Dr. T. W. Wright, of Bowling Green, and Dr. Frank Boyd, of Paducah, is first assistant. Dr. Bell is a son of Capt. C. D. Bell and a brother of Dr. Jno. P. Bell, of Longview. He comes of a family of doctors and is one of the most accomplished young physicians in the county. He graduated from South Western University, and from the Medical Department of the University of Virginia, and later took a post graduate course in New York and subsequently served as surgeon in Bellevue hospital. He has practiced medicine here about a year, being now twenty-three years old. Personally Dr. Bell is one of the most popular young men in the county, and is particularly admired by the soldier boys of this city who went wild with delight when the news of his appointment was received. All of his friends in Hopkinsville rejoice in his success.

Henry Williams Enlists.

Henry Williams, of Bowling Green, enrolling clerk of the House, and a very bright young newspaperman, has enlisted in the Bowling Green company. He is a son of Mr. J. P. Williams, of Montgomery, Ky.

A WAR PRAYER.

Printed in the Jewish Gazette of

New Jersey.

(Translation.)

O merciful and gracious King, God of Gods, Lord of Lords, in thy hands is the soul of every living creature and the spirit of every human being; look down from thy holy dwelling, from heaven; save, we beseech thee, thy servants, the American nation, who dwell in these United States, who adhere to the teachings of the benevolent attributes, to do good to mortal beings, to show compassion to those who are formed by thy hand, and who risk their lives as they do this day, to shed their blood like water in this war which duty commands, to deliver the Cuban people, who sigh and groan beneath the hand of the relentless and cruel Spanish nation, who have thirsted for human blood from days of old.

O Lord of compassion, we pray thee, pity and have mercy upon our forces on land and sea, and give them strength and courage to stand before the power of our enemies and to subdue the pride of those who rise against us, that they, our hosts, return not in defeat—Oh, do thou avert that! with head bent downward and faces shamed.

May thy loving kindness uphold and support us with thy right hand, to deliver the Cubans who are oppressed and afflicted by their prosecutors, and to proclaim freedom for them in order that they also may enjoy the glow of enlightenment and freedom which thou hast apportioned to us, sons of these United States, with thy full open, thy extended hand.

We implore thee, prosper our ways that no sickness, misfortune, mishaps or evil accidents may befall us. Bring our ships to desired havens and lead us by silent waters. Graciously bestow of thy knowledge, understanding and wisdom upon our authorities, councilors and commanders, that they may succeed in their plans on the lines of love, mercy and humanity, that they may proceed theron as now. Appoint us for salvation and compassion that violence, outbreak and calamity be unheard of in our land, that perfect peace may be accorded to us and to all who dwell in the country, now and forevermore, Amen.

Kentuckians in Missouri.

The Kentuckian always holds his head up when he meets a friend. He never dodges an acquaintance or deserts a neighbor. He is always true blue. He likes romance, and would much rather run off with a girl than marry quietly in a church. Indeed, he has been heard to express a doubt as to whether a wedding in which the parents consented was altogether legal. That he loves women and fast horses has passed a proverb, but he likes only the horses to be swift. The Kentuckian is a born politician. When he comes to Missouri—as he usually does when he arrives at the age of discretion—he first buys a farm and then runs for office. He usually gets the office and loses the farm. The Kentuckian likes politics because it is part war and part lottery. He dearly loves both. He will fight at the drop of a hat, and drop the hat. He will bet on anything from a horse race to the length of the preacher's prayer. So he goes into politics.—Columbia (Mo.) Herald.

Victory For Dr. Whitsitt.

Norfolk, Va., May 7.—The trustees of the seminary reaffirm the Wilmington action declining to reopen the Whitsitt matter. It was suggested that a committee be appointed by the convention to report next year on the advisability of severing all connection with the full Kentucky delegation. The convention will not agree to this. Dr. Carter Helm Jones declared that the action did not voice the sentiment of Kentucky Baptists. The foreign board reported receipts $124,610, and out of debt; home board receipts, $86,000. There is scarcely any prospect of further discussion of the seminary in the convention this year.

Ellen Richardson, a colored woman, from Gordonsville, here on a visit to her daughter, was taken with an attack of phthisis. Friday night at a late hour and in a short while. The body was taken to Gordonsville for interment.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETS.

Judge McCarron Elected President
Committee Appointed to Confer With Council.

The School Board met at the usual place Saturday night and held an interesting session. Messrs. Galbreath and Stites, who had been elected that day, qualified by taking the oath, and certificates were then issued to them. The next thing was the reorganization of the Board. Mr. C. P. Braden and Judge Jo. McCarron were placed in nomination. The ballot resulted in the choice of Judge McCarron.

A committee was appointed to confer with the city council relative to that body's recent action in the matter of the school fund. In the opinion of the members of the School Board the educational fund has been unjustly deprived of ten per cent of its revenues and this the Board will ask the Council to restore. If it is done the School Board figures that the present deficit exceeding $19,000, will be wiped out.

Patriotic Princeton People.

The people of Princeton will celebrate the great naval victory of Commodore Dewey at Manila, at the Opera House, Tuesday evening, May 10. Speeches will be made by Hon. Wm. Marble, John C. Gates, Ward Headly and others.

Popular national airs will be rendered by the best musical talents of the city. The city council has agreed to suspend the ordinance in regard to shooting fire crackers, etc., and give the boys a chance to celebrate.

MAJ. HENRY T. STANTON.

Death of the Author of "The Moonless Man."

Frankfort, Ky., May 9.—Maj. Henry T. Stanton, poet, soldier and editor, died at his home in this city at 11 o'clock yesterday in the sixtieth year of his age. Maj. Stanton had been in declining health for three years from Bright's disease, the immediate cause of his rather sudden death being paralysis of the heart.

His last serious illness had lasted only about ten days, and, while his family had been summoned, the end was not deemed near.

During a short sleep after a restless night his breathing suddenly became labored and he passed quickly and peacefully away.

The funeral will take place from the Ascension Episcopal church of this city at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Maj. Stanton married Miss Martha Lindsey, of Mt. Sterling, in June, 1856. She and nine grown children survive him. The latter are Messrs. E. L. Stanton, of Frankfort; H. T. Stanton, Jr., St. Louis; T. J. Stoddard Stanton, Lexington; Mrs. J. G. McLean, Mrs. Geo. L. Willis, Frankfort; Mrs. C. W. Dorsey, Mrs. Lottie Carpenter, Crescent Hill; Misses Florence and Virginia Stanton.

Had a Cake Walk.

A large audience was at the Friendship Hall last night to witness the first of a series of "Cake Walks" which will afford many pleasant diversions to colored society during the season. The stage was reserved for the white guests, of whom there were quite a number. The judges awarded the cake to Jo. Monroe and his lady. Tim McReynolds was a close second, and "Hot Stuff" was not very far behind. Five couples competed.
